

Job Description

Depot Shifty

The Depot is like the heartbeat of Kiwiburn, the central hub from which (mis)information flows in and out. Don't forget the ice. Picture yourself as the busy bee, passing details from one person to the next, taking care of lots of little tasks of all shapes and sizes all from the comfort of your cabin! From this spot you will get to see the crew hard at work but also witness the flow of the festival. If you enjoy lots of variety with a dash of responsibility (not to mention a love of selling ice) then this is the job for you!

Key Responsibilities

- Turn up to your rostered shift/s
- Sell ice
- Convey information (or least use your imagination)
- Take care of lost and found
- Liaise and help coordinate lost volunteers
- Make new friends and/or enemies as people come to see you with hilarious stories and questions
- Random admin tasks
- Monitor the banter on the radios (Shift Managers only)

Working Relationships

- REPORTS TO: Depot Lead/Depot 2IC
- Shift Manager
- Other volunteers on shift (all departments)

Time Commitment

- During the event
- 4 hour shift/s between 10-5pm

Necessary Qualities, Knowledge and Experience

- A friendly and helpful nature
- Reliable and responsible
- Top notch organisational skills
- Attention to detail
- Likes being responsible for lots of little things
- Good at making up stories

Job Description

Desirable Qualities, Knowledge and Experience

- Pro-active thinker
- Creative answers for difficult questions
